1. Public charge

The Hillsborough Board of Commissioners pledges to the citizens of Hillsborough its respect. The board asks citizens to conduct themselves in a respectful, courteous manner with the board and with fellow citizens. At any time should any member of the board or any citizen fail to observe this public charge, the mayor or the mayor's designee will ask the offending person to leave the meeting until that individual regains personal control. Should decorum fail to be restored, the mayor or the mayor's designee will recess the meeting until such time that a genuine commitment to this public charge is observed.
