

A large, light gray watermark of the Hillsborough Police Department badge is centered in the background. The badge is shield-shaped with a curved top. At the top, the word "POLICE" is written in a bold, sans-serif font. Below this, there is a depiction of a classical building with a dome and columns. To the left of the building is a stylized American flag, and to the right is a smaller flag with the letters "N.C." and a star. The words "HILLSBOROUGH" and "POLICE" are written vertically along the left and right sides of the shield, respectively. At the bottom of the shield, there is a circular seal with a scale of justice and a sword.

Question: If police officers arrest 100 people for various offenses over the course of a year, how many times do you think they would encounter some kind of resistance?

The background features a large, faded police department logo. The word "POLICE" is prominently displayed at the top in a large, white, sans-serif font. Below it, there is a shield-shaped emblem containing an American flag on the left, a fire helmet in the center, and a blue shield with a yellow star and the letters "N.C." on the right. The word "HIGH" is visible on the right side of the shield. At the bottom of the shield, the year "1754" and the letters "NC" are visible.
